

Antenna House Subscription Pricing

The Subscription License requires a 12-month commitment and the customer cannot opt out until the subscription period ends. The Subscription License includes maintenance and support for the duration of the subscription.

For subscription periods less than 12 months, please contact sales@antennahouse.com.

If the customer wants to convert to a standard Perpetual License during the subscription period, they will receive credit from the subscription license towards the purchase of a new Perpetual License. Please note that the used maintenance period will be deducted from the credit.
