

Column width

The table column widths can be specified with either automatic or fixed table layout. Fixed table layout is used only when 'table-layout' is 'fixed' and 'inline-progression-dimension' (or 'width') is a length or a percentage. Otherwise, automatic table layout is used. 'proportional-column-width()' can be used to specify relative column widths. The ability to use 'proportional-column-width()' with automatic table layout is an Antenna House Formatter extension.
